FINAL REPORT (In addition to questions 1 &amp; 2, answer the following questions when filing a Final Report)

1. The total probable amount that has been withheld from the judgment debtor's disposable earnings and paid to the court while the garnishment order of the judgment debtor's personal earnings remained in effect is $ —

(When applicable) the total probable amount due on the judgment (stated in 2 above) is not equal to the total amount that has been withheld (stated in 3 above), and the reason for that difference is that the garnishment order of the judgment debtor's personal earnings ceased to be in effect for the following statutorily prescribed reason(s)

check whichever apply:

- A municipal or county court appointed a trustee for the judgment debtor and issued an order that stays the garnishment order of the debtor's personal earnings.
- A federal bankruptcy court issued an order that stays the garnishment order of the judgment debtor's personal earnings.
- A municipal, county, or common pleas court issued another garnishment order of personal earnings that related to the debtor and a different creditor, and Ohio or federal law provides the latter order a higher priority. Set forth the name of the court that issued the higher priority order, the associated case number, the date that the higher priority order was received, and the balance due to the relevant judgment creditor under that order: —
- A municipal, county, or common pleas court issued another garnishment order of personal earnings that related to the debtor and a different creditor and that is not described 4(C) above. Set forth the name of the court that issued the subsequently received order, the associated case number, the date that the subsequent order was received, and the balance due to the relevant judgment creditor under that order: —

- The creditor or creditor's attorney has issued a request that the garnishment order be terminated and the garnishee released from mandates of the garnishment order.
